

KRMC HISTORY

One of the unique aspects of Men's Ministry in the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) in Kentucky is the Kentucky Regional Men's Chorus. The group is made up of Disciple men from across the Commonwealth and states beyond. No auditions are required. The membership is constantly growing.

In 1994, the Chorus was the inspiration of John Elkins (Clintonville), President of the Regional Men's Cabinet. The diligent leadership of Greg Alexander, Associate Regional Minister, brought the chorus to reality.

JOHN T. OPSATA
Director

Of the seventeen years of its existence, John T. Opsata has been the Men's Chorus' director for thirteen. He directed the group in its first two seasons and then returned four years later following graduate studies. He holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Music Education, Master degrees in Church Music and Divinity, and a Doctor of Philosophy degree in Liturgical Studies. Before entering the ministry, he was a high school music educator in his home state of Minnesota. He has served two Disciple congregations in Kentucky and one in Ohio. Dr. Opsata is presently the Sr. Minister of the First Christian Church in Frankfort, Kentucky. John is married to Jennifer who is an oncology nurse at the University of Kentucky Markey Cancer Center.

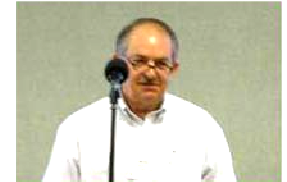

BRAD HERNDON
Accompanist

Brad Herndon and his wife, Nancy, have two children, Lindsey and Bryce. They live in Greenfield, Indiana and attend Greenfield Christian Church, where Brad is the pianist and past congregational chair. He began playing the piano at the age of seven, and studied classical piano with a college professor when he was 12 years old. He enjoys all forms of music, but is partial to up-tempo gospel music. His favorite composer/arranger is Mark Hayes. Brad received his undergraduate degree in finance and economics from Indiana State University, and his MBA from the University of Indianapolis. He is a Chartered Financial Analyst and Chartered Market Technician. Brad manages the Trust Department of Greenfield Banking Company.
